ADULT & FAMILY SERVICES

CENTRAL VIRGINIA
Community Services

Quality Care... Changed Lives!

Life-Changing, Quality Care, When and Where You Need It

The father of two small children fails a drug test at work. A college student makes a suicide attempt. A capable young man with intellectual disability and diabetes struggles to find a support system. A woman with a drinking problem discovers she is pregnant. An elderly couple is threatened by their mentally ill daughter. A recovering addict tests positive for HIV. A repeat offender ignores his medication and ends up back in jail.

For individuals and families seeking help, Central Virginia Community Services offers a professional, community-based network of both urgent and long-term support. Our intervention, treatment, supervised housing, rehabilitation, and after-care programs deliver the right level of behavioral healthcare services to people in need.

Our goal is to promote the health, independence, and self-worth of our clients and the people who care about them. We serve adults with mental illness, drug and alcohol abuse problems, intellectual disability, or any combination of these challenges and disabilities.
